The Star Book for Ministers Edward Thurston Hiscox 1878

The Little Black Book Shaolin Abrams 2015-12-18 From the beginning, God has called leaders to serve His people. For God, Abraham left his homeland. Moses declined Egypt and its riches. Joshua destroyed Jericho. Elijah confronted King Ahab. Daniel faced the lions; and the James and John forsook their nets. Matthew left his customs booth. And Paul left a life of power and prestige. Despite their trials, these all found the venture satisfying. Paul's account of shipwreck, floggings, danger, and hardship glows with suffused excitement. He was having the time of his life! What if he'd said no to Christ? Telling the Philippians about the things he had given up, Paul declared, "I consider them rubbish." And why? "That I may gain Christ and be found in him" Philippians 3:8-9. We enjoy the same perspective, for through His Cross; Jesus opened not only the door of salvation for all who would accept, but the privilege of service as well. Jew, Greek, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free...all may serve the Lord Christ. Some were apostles. Some, prophets. Some will be evangelists, some pastors and teachers. All are "for the equipping of the saints, for the work of service, to the building up of the Body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ" Ephesians 4:12-13. For the Minister of the Gospel, each day offers a new challenge. The phone rings; we are summoned to the bedside of a dying man. Later in the day, we help arrange a marriage. That evening, we counsel a soul in trouble. No other vocation offers such a wide span of involvement with mankind. Then when we stand to preach, think of it...in our weak and human hands we hold the truth of God, the supreme answer to the souls of man. The ministry of Christ is not a job, not a profession. It is a calling, and the noblest...the most demanding and at times exasperating, but it is surely the most satisfying and rewarding experience human life affords. With Paul, we can truly say, "I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because He considered me faithful, putting me into service" 1Timothy 1:12. Like the Christian life, the ministry of Christ is a relationship between the disciple and his lord. We serve Him; He develops and strengthens us. We must prepare ourselves first, then our sermons. The very fact that we are ministers will work against our spiritual life unless we are careful. We study the Bible, but for a text; we pray, but in front of a group or beside a hospital bed. While attending to these public ministries, our personal devotions may be neglected. Power in preaching comes in direct proportion to time spent in prayer and in the Word. Nothing...not speaking ability nor a forceful personality nor a persuasive manner...can take the place of the Spirit of God, filing and shaping and using the life committed to Him. Are we adequate to the task? Never. We have this treasure in jars of clay, but God accepts and uses our service nonetheless. Paul finally learned to accept his weakness, so "that the power of Christ may dwell in me" 2Corinthians 12:9. If the truth were known, few of us pray enough. We tend to rely too much upon our cleverness in programming and promotion, but not enough upon the power of God through prayer. Sadly, our churches show it. A definite time and place, preferably early in the morning, where one can shut out the world and feed upon the Word, unburden his heart, and commune with the Father will set the tone for the day and for a lifetime. The minister who keeps his appointment with God need have no anxiety about his work. In his daily walk, he will experience the unfolding hand of God bringing new power and effectiveness. He will see his life lifted to a new level he never dreamed possible, a level he could never have attained by himself. Pressed by the crowds, with such a short time to complete His task, Jesus still found time to pray. So must we.

Christ in the Passover Ceil Rosen 2006-05-01 Bitter herbs, salty water, a sweet apple mixture, the shankbone of a lamb--what is the meaning behind these symbolic elements? Enter the celebration of Passover, rich with history and significance for both Jew and Gentile. God wasn't finished working in the lives of His people after the waters of the Red Sea parted. Both past and future deliverance are celebrated in this solemn and joyful feast. Through Christ in the Passover, you'll trace God's involvement through the history of this holy day—from the first Passover, all the way to the modern Seder. And in the revised editions of this inviting book, Ceil and Moishe Rosen show you how the death and resurrection of Jesus the Messiah are forever interwoven with the Passover and its symbolism.

Peace and Love to the World Brian Mwape 2017-06-30 The word of love in the book is a spiritual weapon meant for our current generation and the message to the generations to come. The prophetic word is the intertwine of the real life situations, visions, dreams and prophesies which I experienced in my way of faith. The challenges which I encountered and how the Lord helped me to pull through in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Nonetheless the malady of hatred which has contaminated the world, it is only peace and love from the Lord which can heal the infectious ulcer which man has suffered. Dignity has been lost in accordance to Hosea 4:6 'my people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge. I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children'. Further, that our Lord Jesus Christ came down with the seed of peace and love to unify the candidates of heaven through the provision of the Holy Scriptures. Let us unite and break the seed of hatred which Satan had planted in the hearts of men. 1 Corinthians 13:3 And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love. This book is dedicated to all my brothers and sisters in the Lord, especially those who are at the verge of losing hope of survival spiritually. It is therefore, here to impart in their hearts with Peace and Love from our God Almighty. The word in this book is aimed at reconciling the people on earth with love so as to cushion the conflicts among nations. It is in accordance to Isaiah 2:2-3 the message in the book has been written and it is therefore inviting all my brothers and sisters from across the world to experience the Holy Spirit with words of great faith in the Lord. The book is here to comfort the sick, the afflicted and those souls who are persecuted by the enemy. It also embraces all the races and does not stigmatize any person as it is based on the true love from our Lord and the message is inspired by the Holy Spirit with a view to unite the people across the globe. I therefore wish the Church, the United Nations, the governments and other charitable organizations to enhance preaching peace among the people in the land for us to have a better world. It is in this line, that the Lord our God came down on earth to save humanity. More so, we should embrace peace and love to survive this world of troubles. The love of God is unconditional, thus, we should follow suit to have a godly love in our hearts or humanity will be wiped out on the face of the earth soonest. The beauty of welcoming peace and love from God is compared to the bond between the earth and the sun and the rain. There is no segregation in the house of the Lord but we are all equal in the face of our creator. Mother Nature has been very kind to us and it reprimands us whenever we err but our Lord Jesus Christ used to curse Nature. We have continued preaching about the importance of spreading the word of God and also His love which has made us to be who we are on earth. The love of God unifies the people and that it cuts through the rod of hatred which is in the hearts of the evil ones. We should therefore embrace the love of God for us to reach greater heights of love, where all religions, race and tribes shall stand tall in the same platform and pronounce to the higher heavens that we are one people. Women and children needs true love from our hearts. I dream of a beautiful world where we shall be protected by the love of God, because humanity on that day shall have total unite. It is common knowledge that Satan has infiltrated our governments, entertainment industry and a lot more circles of life. Therefore, it is time man woke up from the deep slumber and fight for his life or else he will die naked with shame. However, we wrestled the devil for us to have peace and love so that we get saved but the battle has been tough. The Lord has been fighting battles for humanity because God is love. Amen!!

The Mark of the Minister of God Oladeji Toluwaleke Olagoke 2013-11-22 The Christian world is replete with all manner of church leaders and ministers parading as men and women sent by God. For many of these people, God's work is a lucrative business. Easy money, fame, aggrandizement, and all its paraphernalia. But is that what this is all about? Certainly God did call some. Did God call all these that you see around? Do you know that Satan has men and women who also masquerade as those sent by God? This book will prove handy to help you find the answers to these questions.

What if I told you that Revival wasn't an event, but an environment built over time! In this manual Bryan Meadows paints a prophetic picture detailing the process of Revival. The Revival Manual is an interactive and in-depth collection of notes, lessons, and diagrams all designed to be a resource in the hands of the Revivalist. Welcome to the World of Revival!

How to Teach Holiness David Huston 2016-08-01 Teaching the holy way of living to new believers has become more challenging than ever. This is because holiness is counter-cultural by its very nature, and our modern culture has drifted far away from the ways of God. This book looks at the ways holiness is applied in the life of a believer, but it also explains the underlying eternal principles. This is vitally important, because the principles enable believers to understand why we do what we do. Every spiritual leader will be aided by this comprehensive and insightful volume.
